Summary

Innovative and resourceful government and non-profit professional with a record of solid results with new and existing programs. Ability to build and motivate staff and volunteer teams. Works well with community leaders, boards of directors, non-profits and government agencies. Effective fundraiser, good manager and fiscally responsible.

Professional Experience

Leadership and Board Relations

- Manages the Department of Social Services – Economic Security (DSS-ES) with nearly 400 employees to ensure that Federal, State and Local regulations are adhered to for public benefit programs (i.e. Temporary Assistance, SNAP, Day Care, HEAP, Medicaid and Child Support). Every 2 out of 5 county residents utilize one or more of the above-mentioned programs.
- Since assuming the Commissioner's role, kept the department's over $200 million-dollar budget expenses within budget annually.
- Developed an integrated service delivery model linking health and human services with public schools to improve student performance and behavioral outcomes as Co-Chair of the Westside Community School Strategy, the precursor to Say Yes to Education.
- Engaged in numerous community based organizations with a wide array of engagements i.e. board leadership, executive director search, personnel, programming, strategic planning, grant making, event planning, and fundraising.
- Developed and implemented an innovative allocations process for United Way of Central New York. Focused in three major strategies: Preparing Children and Youth for Success; Strengthening Families and Individuals; and Promoting Strong Neighborhoods and Community. Two key elements included an open competitive process and institutionalizing a program outcome focus.
- As first director of "Success By 6", created and implemented a business plan that launched a community-wide collaborative effort to improve lives of young children in Onondaga County. This effort included over 50 nonprofit agencies, 100 volunteers, 125 businesses and government agencies.

Management

- Focused DSS-ES on customer service excellence and quality management with measurable results. Provided customer service training to all staff, supervisory training for all management staff and establishing Onboarding training for all new staff and new supervisors to reinforce the culture change.
- Implemented improved technologies in DSS-ES including a client lobby tracking and kiosks. Daily over 800 clients check in for services or use the kiosks to drop off required information. These improvements resulted in improved client interaction and maximized staff efficiencies.
- Production standards have been established to monitor customer service, quality and timeliness in all areas of DSS-ES.
- Revamped DSS-ES's process regarding homeless and homeless shelters resulting a 17% reduction in family and individual homelessness in three years.
- Implemented a process to hold the DSS-ES's contracted organizations accountable for fiscal and program effectiveness and efficiency for allocations in the millions. A major feature of this effort was the development of a web-based Contract Authoring and Monitoring System (CAMS).
- Managed thirty employees in NY Connects/Resource Center (DSS) through transition and turnover to ensure county residences access to an array of home care services.

- Developed a plan to address the needs of the housing vulnerable and homeless with City and County Community Development offices using a $3.4 million Homeless Prevention and Re-Housing (HPRP) federal grant.
- Supervised and built teams of United Way employees in Allocations, Success By 6, HELPLINE call center, Volunteer Connection, and Retired Senior Volunteer Programs.
- Managed United Way allocations process for five years including a committee of 110 community volunteers who reviewed applications and made $6 million funding decisions.

Public Relations and Development

- Expanded community agency outreach and partnerships through hosting a Community Partners Summit and scheduled DSS-ES 101 educational forums.
- Chairwoman of a 39-member multi-sector group (non-profit, government, business, grassroots & religious) that responded to the 1998 Labor Day Storm aftermath. Secured a $650,000 Federal grant for home rehabilitation.
